

Kimberly Hughes
khughes@somersetacademy.com
Social Studies

Background

I graduated from the University of Florida with a Bachelor's degree in History and a minor in Education. Upon graduating, my original goal was to teach at the High School level. Instead, I found myself drawn back to school for my Master's degree. I attended Florida State University and received my Master's in Library and Information Sciences. For the past seven years, I have been a librarian in the nonprofit world.

A part of me has always wanted to return to the classroom, and Somerset Academy has provided me with the best of both worlds. I am teaching three World History classes and setting up the library!

Educational Philosophy

Because of my diverse background, I bring to my class a passion for reading and a love of history. I hope to instill that same passion to my students.

My educational philosophy is quite simple. I believe that every student is capable of learning if they make an effort. The one doing the work is the one learning. With the guidance of their instructor, every student can and should succeed in school.

For more information about my class, please visit my class web site, www.hugheshistory.com, and if you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at khughes@somersetacademy.com.