Biography

I attended college in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania at the University of Pittsburgh. I graduated in 2005 with a Bachelor's of Science in Psychology, a Bachelor's of Arts in History, and a certificate in Children's Literature. While I was working on my undergraduate degrees, I worked with children of all ages, ranging for 3 years old to 15 years old, in a variety of settings. I moved from Pennsylvania to Fort Lauderdale in July. I am currently working on my Master's/Specialist's Degree in School Psychology at Nova Southeastern University.

My philosophy of education is that all children can learn. My goal as an educator is to provide a foundation of knowledge that my students can take with them through their life and to give them the support that they need to succeed.
